Nurse Pinning

The nursing pin is a symbol with a rich history dating back to the Maltese Cross. The Crusaders wore the cross as a symbol of service to Christianity. Over the centuries various symbols represented service to a ruler or to the community. As a result of Florence Nightingale's influence, the importance of "nurses' training" was recognized and hospitals began developing programs. The Nightingale School of Nursing at St. Thomas's Hospital in London designed and awarded a badge with a Maltese Cross to the nurses as they completed their program. Source: Mary W. Rode (1989),

Nightingale Pledge

I solemnly pledge myself in the presence of this assembly:
To practice my profession with integrity, honesty and commitment;

I will contribute to the betterment of my profession by working to elevate the standards of nursing care, by adding to nursing's body of knowledge and by delivering person-centered care. I will care for individuals, families and groups with respect, advocating for them and maintain their confidentiality.

I will refrain from administering treatments which will cause harm. Through collaboration, inquiry and pursuit of wisdom, I will endeavor to safeguard the health and welfare of those committed to my care.
